

TROLLEY ROADS JOIN AT WESTERLY

Groton & Stonington Cars Will Run Over Pawcatuck Valley
 Rails to Railway Terminal—War Maneuvers Interesting
 Shore Residents—Tax Receipts May Shrink From New State Law.

Work was commenced Tuesday morning on the actual work of connecting the Groton and Stonington Street Railway company that terminates at the state and town boundary line on the broad street bridge with the Pawcatuck Valley Street Railway company at the junction of Main and Broad streets, a distance of about 150 feet, about half the distance being on the steel bridge that spans the Pawcatuck river, which is of some construction, with rounded about two feet in depth. This roadbed is of solid concrete and will be within three inches of the surface and the distance is necessarily slow, as the road material almost equals in hardness the Westery granite. It is necessary in order to properly place the ties to dig to the center of the top of the domes and about three feet wider than the length of the ties. It will probably require three days to clear the space on the bridge for the laying of the rails and the preparation of the space between is an easy task in comparison. The opinion of the contractor is that the rails will be connected by Saturday of the present week, and probably trolley cars from the Groton-Stonington line will come into Westery territory for the first time next Sunday.

The bridge over the Pawcatuck was built 27 years ago and the hardened condition of the roadbed gave evidence of the thoroughness of the work, which is fully up to the guarantee of 25 years. The bridge will be strengthened wherever necessary by the concern that built the bridge and the expense of the trolley companies interested. The plan contemplates the running of the cars into Westery, and the railway station, which will eventually be the terminal for all trolley lines entering Westery. This change will relieve the congested conditions in West Broad and Main streets caused by the freight department, as all that part of the business will be handled at the freight depot in Broad avenue. Some of the trolley lines will be extended to the new station, and the line of the Pawcatuck Valley road. The management of the trolley lines are spending immense sums in extending and improving the system, and are having more faith in the future growth of Westery than many of its oldest inhabitants.

Unless some remedy is applied there will be shrinkage in the receipts of taxation to pay the expenses of the town of Westery for the ensuing year. There is a new state law which provides that intangible property shall be taxed at 40 cents on each $100. At the financial meeting of the town of Westery, the customary tax of $1.50 on each $100 of taxable property, tangible and intangible, was levied as usual, and without due regard for the new state law. The town has a large amount of intangible property, and the estimated expenses for the year and the sum realized from taxes on that basis is actually required. With 40 cents deducted on intangible property, the receipts will be materially reduced.

It was generally understood that there was scarcity of laborers in Westery, still at one time Tuesday there were just as many men serving as a citizens' committee on the job of trolley track extension on the Broad street.

Lillian Russell's Warning. Sore Feet: Bad Health

Lillian Russell is a physical wonder. Now in mature years, but having preserved the fresh beauty of youth. In the Chicago Tribune she says: "Care of the feet, hardest worked members of the body, is absolutely essential to health. Irritation from sore feet often causes serious nervous disorders, and nothing brings back the wrinkles quicker. Here is the best treatment known to me. It works through the pores and removes the cause. Dissolve two tablespoonfuls of Caloide compound in a basin of warm water. Soak feet in this for full fifteen minutes, gently rubbing the soles between the toes. All soreness disappears instantly. Corns and calluses can be removed right off. It gives instant relief for bunions, aching and aching joints. Any trouble has Caloide in stock or will quickly get it from the wholesale house. A twenty-five cent box usually cures the worst feet. Caloide is not a patent medicine. It wastes money on uncertain remedies, that on getting what you want from Caloide."

Following the acceptance of the report it was voted to effect the change October 1, or as soon as the amalgamated bodies become incorporated. The moral support of the combined organizations was voted in sustaining the action to compel the Central Vermont railroad to restore the train called for in the commission's recent order, as a result of the hearing held before that commission, relative to better train service, provided that upon inquiry it is found that the public utilities commission is not a party to the appeal that has been taken by the railroad company.
